

CORONAVIRUS: DESTINATION RESTRICTIONS

Updated November 24, 2020

Countries around the globe have imposed various travel and in-country restrictions in an attempt to halt the spread of coronavirus. Many have essentially closed their borders except to citizens returning home and enforced controls on everyday life. Naturally, this poses obstacles when relocating employees; and as a relocation company, we have a duty to understand the current restrictions taking place. In the table below, we have provided travel and in-country restrictions for the top 10 countries by total move activity in 2019.

Additional resources for more locations can be found below the table.
