

Cartus Wins Relocation Management Company of the Year in APAC for Fifth Year in a Row!

Cartus has won two awards at the 2016 APAC Expatriate Management and Mobility Awards \(EMMAS\) – Relocation Management Company of the Year and Best Vendor Partnership with our client, Statoil, a multinational oil and gas company. The award program is organized by the Forum for Expatriate Management (FEM), a leading community for global mobility professionals.

Relocation Management Company of the Year - Win

The Relocation Management Company of the Year award recognizes the investment we have made in our in-house Learning & Development function. Unique within the industry, the training and support that our consultants receive from their very first day with us, ensures that they can deliver exceptional have done, will do service to our clients and assignees.

Best Vendor Partnership Award - Win

The Best Vendor Partnership Award was won with our client, Statoil. Our award submission outlined the successful delivery of group moves in emerging market locations and the flexibility that was demonstrated on both sides of the partnership.

Destination Services Provider of the Year – Runner Up

We also received a runner up accolade in the Destination Services Provider of the Year category illustrating our expertise in the multi-lingual destination services support that we provide in China.

A Special Thanks to all departments and everyone involved in this success. It was truly a team effort. For more details about these award wins please read our Blog

Rob Line, Susan Ng, Jo-Lynn Wee and Michelle Low collecting the EMMAs in Singapore